SATISFIED WITH HIS NEW JOB

Former Republican Committee Secretary Declares There's No Truth in Stories that He Was on the Outs with the Chairman-Going to Buckle Right Down to Business,

New York, Aug. 9.-Elmer Dover, who resigned his job as secretary of the Republican National Committee to become secretary to the advisory subcommittee of the national organization, said to-day before leaving for a week's stay at his home in Cleveland that his relations with Chairman Hitchcock were most pleasant and harmonious, and that his new job was satisfactory to him.

'Whatever rumors there have been that Mr. Hitchcock and I were even slightly on the outs had no foundation whatever. As a matter of fact, the organization of the working force under the direction of Chairman Hitchcock is progressing with the greatest harmony among all concerned. I will be back in town in a week to take up my duties as secretary of the advisory committee, which is to help Treasurer Sheldon collect funds for the campaign, and I guess you will see about every one in these Taft, Mr. Vorys is free to exercise his parts pulling in the traces with all their

As a rule, the political observers hold, it is the radicals, not the conservatives, who bolt the ticket The Kansas radicals have something to fight for now.

The Iona situation is improving. Representa; es Henburn and Hull, who are now in Washington, both insist that the vacancy in the Senate to be fought for will be an additional incentive for energetic work in both factions, and more so because of the certainty that the strength o give both sides something to expect rom the election of a Republican legis-

Indiana is the blow-hole in the Re publican armor. An Indiana officeholder who ranks next to a Cabinet officer returned to Washington last week after a trip through the State. He express opinion that if the election were held tolay the Republican State and legislative can national ticket, he declares, votes stronger than the State ticket, on account of the prominence given to certain local issues, notably local option. One Southern Weak Spot.

In the South the Republican outlook is better than it bas ever been before in a national electry, except as to one spot-Tennessee. A bitter factional fight between the element headed by Representative Bre miow and that engineered by H. Clay E an s seriously complicating matthe electoral vote if the factions would bury their troubles. Georgia is perhaps the most contestable territory in the Southern States. One of the Democratic Representatives in Con-gress from that State, who was in Washington last week, expressed the opinion that Taft would get the electoral vote of Georgia, but it is only fair to that the member is a well-known anti-A man who is prominently identified with the business department of one of the big Democratic newspapers put it

"Georgia Democrats are sick and tired of Bryan; Roosevelt could have carried the State sure; Taft may do so,"

USE OIL TO FIRE HOUSE,

Midnight Visitors Cause Loss of $10,000 to Indiana Man Princeton, Ind., Aug. 9.-At midnight

five men drove to the home of William McAtee in a closed carriage, climbed to the roof of his house, poured coal oil on it, and then set it on fire. They then went to the barn, led the horses out, and fired the hay. They rang the farm bell to arouse the occupants of
